USF Reform Order—Client Briefing

Save the Date
May 16 - 17, 2016
Denver, Colorado
Location TBA

Alexicon will present a special briefing on the FCC's recent USF Reform Order for rate-of-return regulated carriers (see April 5, 2016 Special Bulletin) on May 16 and 17 in Denver, Colorado. Due to the complexity of the decisions made in the USF Reform Order, companies are urged to attend the briefing session as well as individual meetings to review our best information to date as to the effects the USF reforms will have on your company.

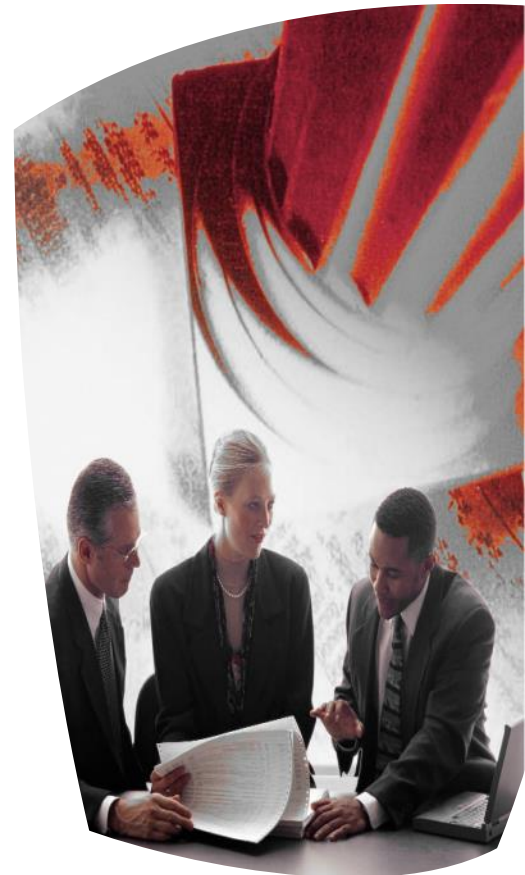

Topics to be covered include:

- ⇒ Summary of the Reform Order
- ⇒ Impacts to High Cost Loop Support, Interstate Common Line Support and Data-Only Support
- ⇒ Caps and Limits to Rural Universal Service Funds
- ⇒ Capital Expenditure Limit Case Study
- ⇒ Operating Expense Limit Case Study
- ⇒ Areas for Reconsideration and Clarification
- ⇒ Analyzing Competitive Overlap
- ⇒ Disaggregation of Costs in Competitive Areas
- ⇒ New Compliance Requirements
- ⇒ The Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking: Permitted Expenses and Tribal Broadband Factor

We expect the briefing to start at 1:00 pm Mountain time on May 16 and wrap things up by noon on May 17. There is no cost for the briefing. Alexicon personnel will then be available on May 17 and 18 for individual client meetings to go over company-specific data.

For interested attendees, Alexicon will host a dinner on May 16. We will be in touch as further details emerge

If you have any questions, please let us know.
